Please note all wineries are legally prohibited from serving alcohol to intoxicated guests. If your guests are drinking on your transport between locations it is likely that they will become intoxicated. We reserve the right to refuse an entire group if even one or two members are intoxicated.

Also it is illegal for any alcohol to be consumed on our properties outside of our tasting rooms. If your group chooses to consume alcohol in your transport please see that it remains inside the vehicle.

Wineries reserve the right to refuse a reservation based upon the expected load in the tasting room (October weekends are likely too busy to accommodate groups) Call as far in advance as possible to be assured accommodations for your group.
